

Teaching LGBT History in Schools ED 595 Special Topics

June 4 - June 29, 2018

3 Units | Online Course

Instructor: Dr. Rob Darrow

- ◆ California passed the FAIR Act in 2011.
- ◆ The State Department passed an updated History-Social Science Framework in 2016 and then adopted LGBT history inclusive textbooks in 2017.
- ◆ Few teachers have learned the content or pedagogy about LGBT history, the new state history framework, the LGBT rights movement or important LGBT people in history beyond Harvey Milk, the Stonewall Riots and Ellen.

This course will provide content and pedagogy for teaching LGBT history. It is designed specifically for educators who teach history in grades 7-12, but may also be useful for others engaged in youth education, such as GSA advisors, diversity centers, non-profits, or anyone interested in learning more about LGBT history.

Since the course is offered online, most anyone is eligible to register for this course. Students should be able to devote at least 10 hours per week to the course during the 4-week course time period and have reliable internet access. Twice weekly discussion boards and weekly online course meetings will be required as part of the instruction in addition to various readings.

*** Course enrollment is limited, so register early. *****

Read more about the course: lgbthistory.pbworks.com/

Registration opens Friday, April 13: <https://csumb.edu/summer>

Questions: Rob Darrow, Ed.D • Rob@onlinelearningvisions.com

Dr. Darrow is a lifelong California educator who has worked in all levels of education and specializes in LGBT history, safe and inclusive schools, curriculum development, college and career planning, and blended and online learning.